Senior Class Colors

Yellow and White

Senior Class Motto

"Awake, Arise, or be forever Fallen"

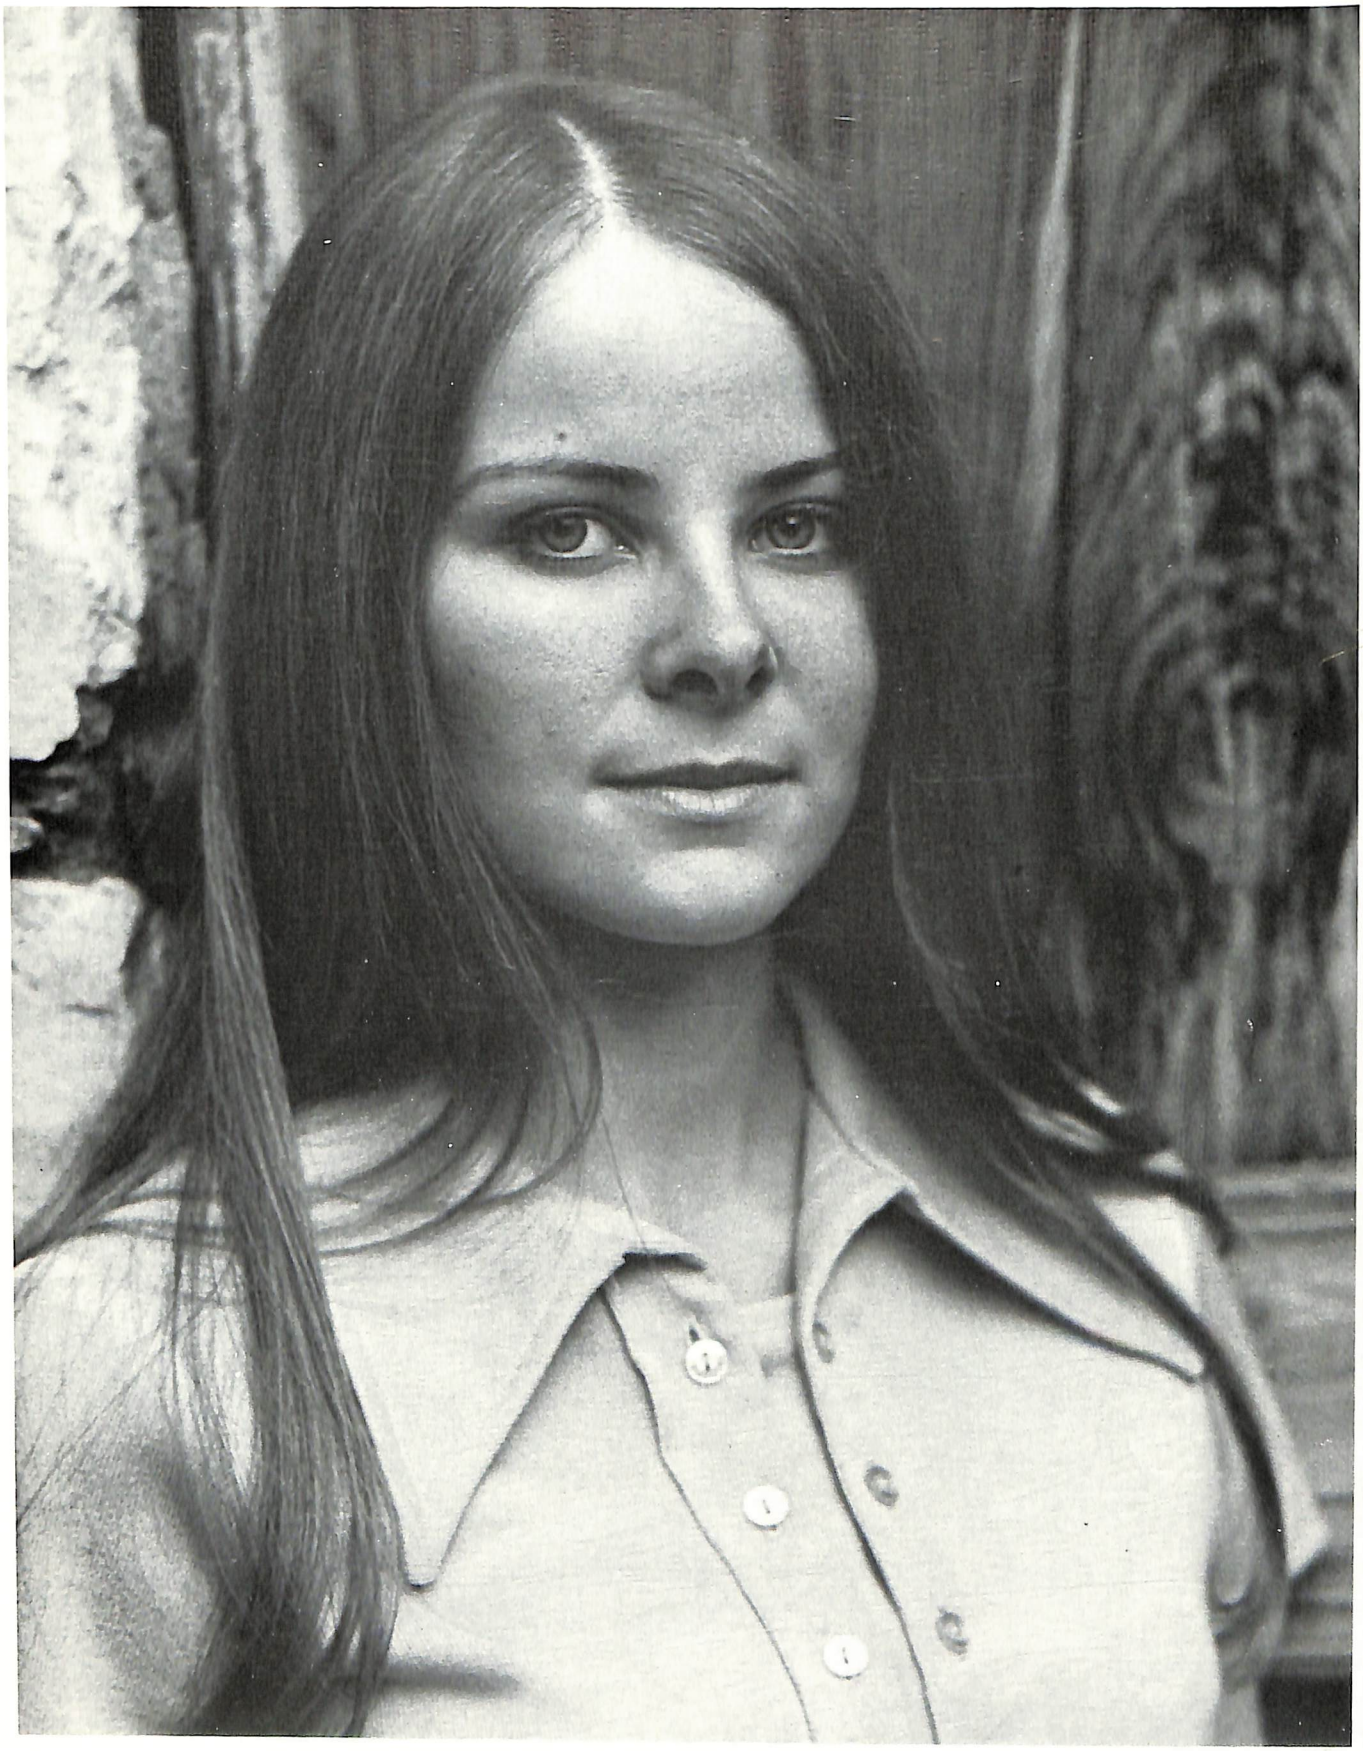
Senior Class Hymn

"Turn Back, O Man"

Gretchen Dinges

Dignity is a quality of reserve which comes with emotional, intellectual, and social maturity. Dignity is always reflected in the recognition of the fitness of things and in the poise and self-confidence with which one places one's self above that which might be considered unseemly.

Beauty



Barbro Norrback

Within each girl is the power to recognize and appreciate the beauty of everyday experiences. Life is filled with beauty if one is sensitive to it and eager to find it . . . if one's eyes are trained to see, one's ears to hear, one's heart to understand and one's mind to remember.

Loyalty

Cynthia Smoots

One of the most important of the Monticello ideals is a deep-seated loyalty to the college, one's friends, one's family, and one's own beliefs. This deep emotion will grow through understanding, respect, and love.

Wisdom

Cathy Walters

As the Monticello girl grows in academic stature, she seeks to increase her ability to apply her knowledge usefully, for wisdom is the union of knowledge with understanding.

Service

Beverly Schultz

Each one of us has a distinctive personality and unique talents. The Monticello girl considers it not only a privilege but a responsibility to share her gifts with all, thereby helping herself and others to develop to the fullest measure.

Democracy

Suanne Jackson

The truly democratic person interests herself in the activities of others. She seeks to understand and respect the ideals and beliefs of her associates while maintaining her own independence of thought and action.

Friendship

Molly Fearheilly

Many of your most cherished and lasting friendships will be made while you are at Monticello. Your college days will afford rich opportunities for making a wide circle of friends. In true friendship there is dignity, beauty, loyalty, service, and never failing consideration.

Who's Who in American Junior Colleges

Gretchen Dinges, Cindy Smoots, Cathy Walters, Nancy May, Lisa Mabry, Beverly Schultz, Sue Williams (Missing from picture—Suanne Jackson)

Selection for listing in WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN JUNIOR COLLEGES is an honor conferred annually upon outstanding student leaders from approximately 600 junior colleges in the United States. In selecting candidates, the student body is instructed to choose those students whose academic standing, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and future potential are decidedly above average.

Activities and Events

We were greeted

and registered

the faculty served at a picnic in Fountain Court

We were serious,
dignified,
proper

Ladies???

We whooped it up

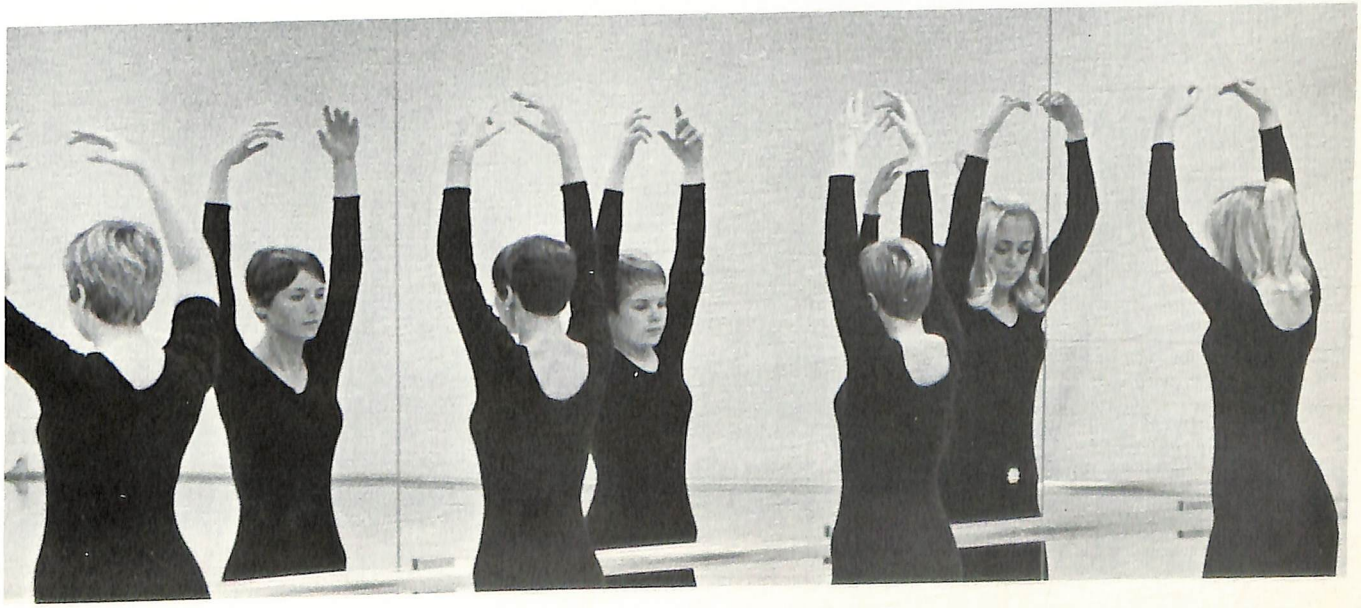
and had "some-kind-of-group" pictures taken

Some girls spruced up Benjamin Godfrey's grave site

Others rode a dune buggy in the snow

And we all participated in fire drills

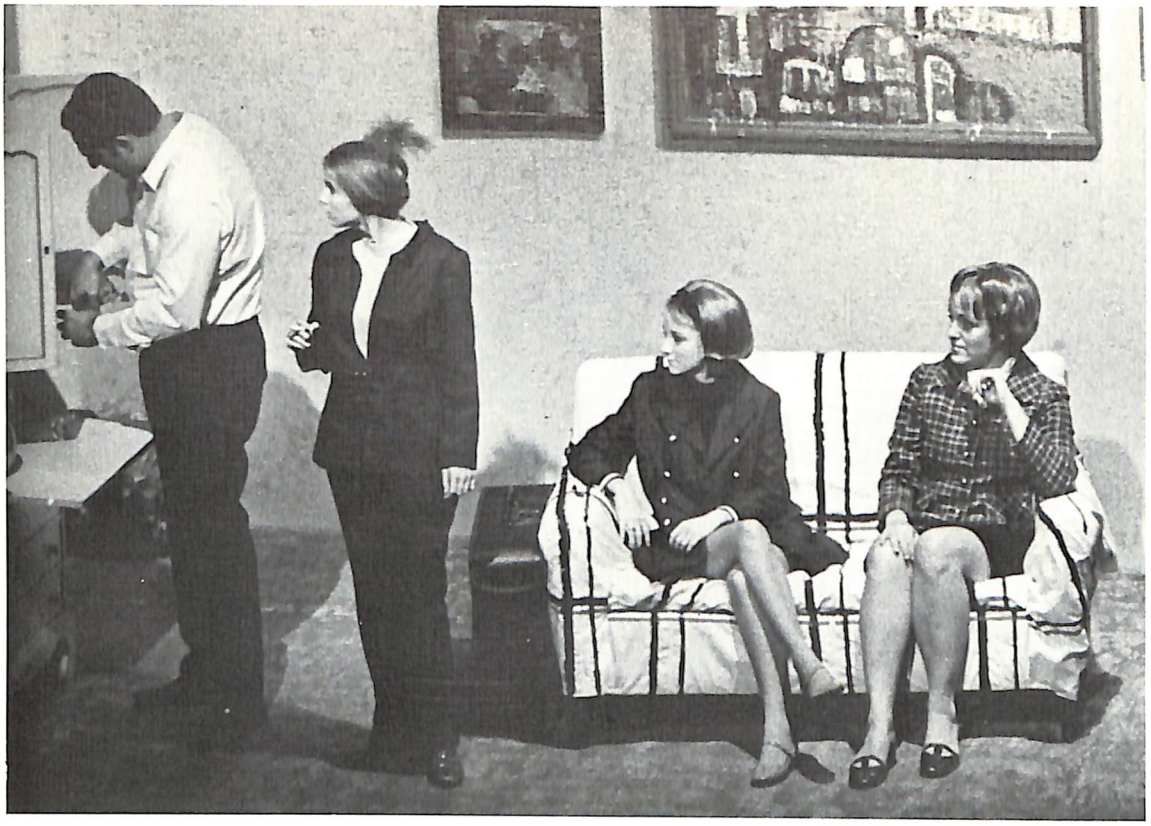
We recreated



Some of us were on TV to "tell it like it is"

We were fashionable

We were entertained by the Air Force Band

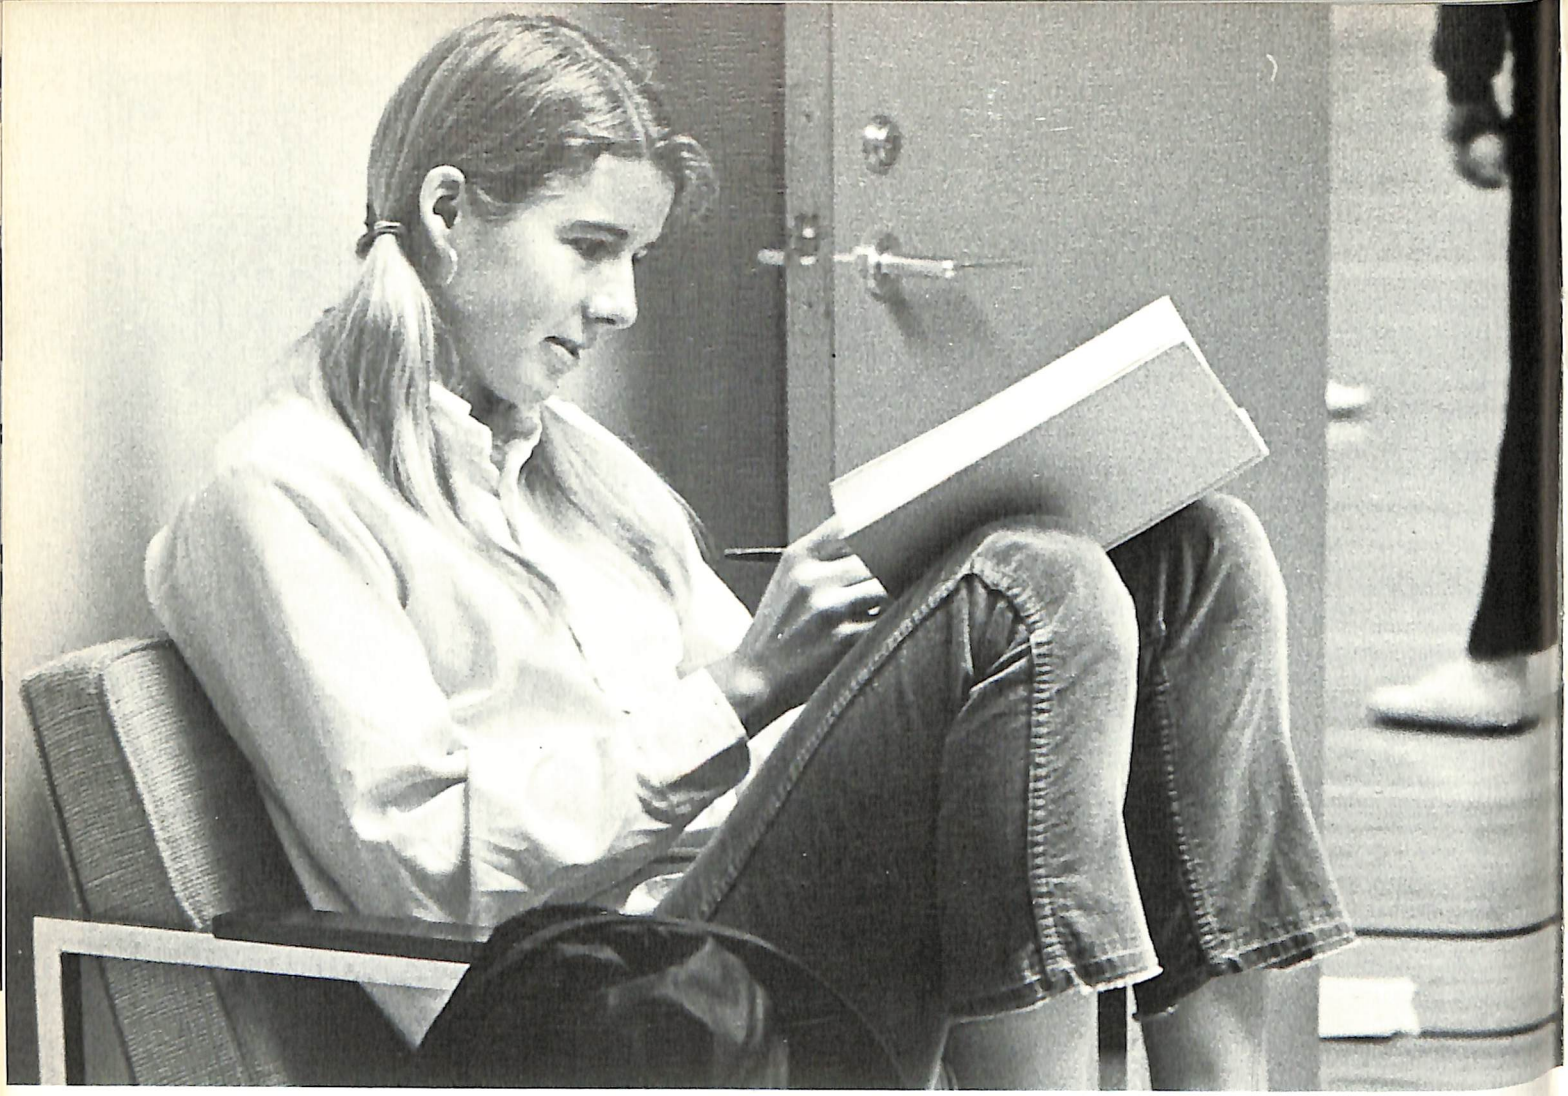


We acted

"Take Her, She's Mine"

And danced and sang

"Little Mary Sunshine"



And still found time to study!

Dads Weekend

Bev Schultz is crowned by Dr. Myers as the "Ideal Daughter"

Melissa and Marie dance with their "dates"

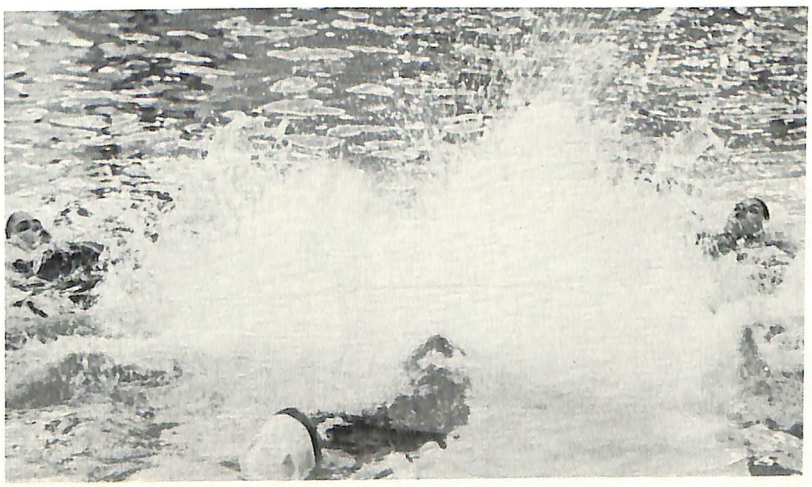
Roommates' families get to meet

Ann Schottelkotte visits with her dad

Greeting their dads as "Monti Dolls" are day students, Kathleen Davey and Kristen Grandfield (seated); Jenny Lawson, Pam Draper, Martha Pohlman, Sue Weir (back)

Senor Martinez and Kitty Burgh award a prize to Libby Wertman in the Horse Show

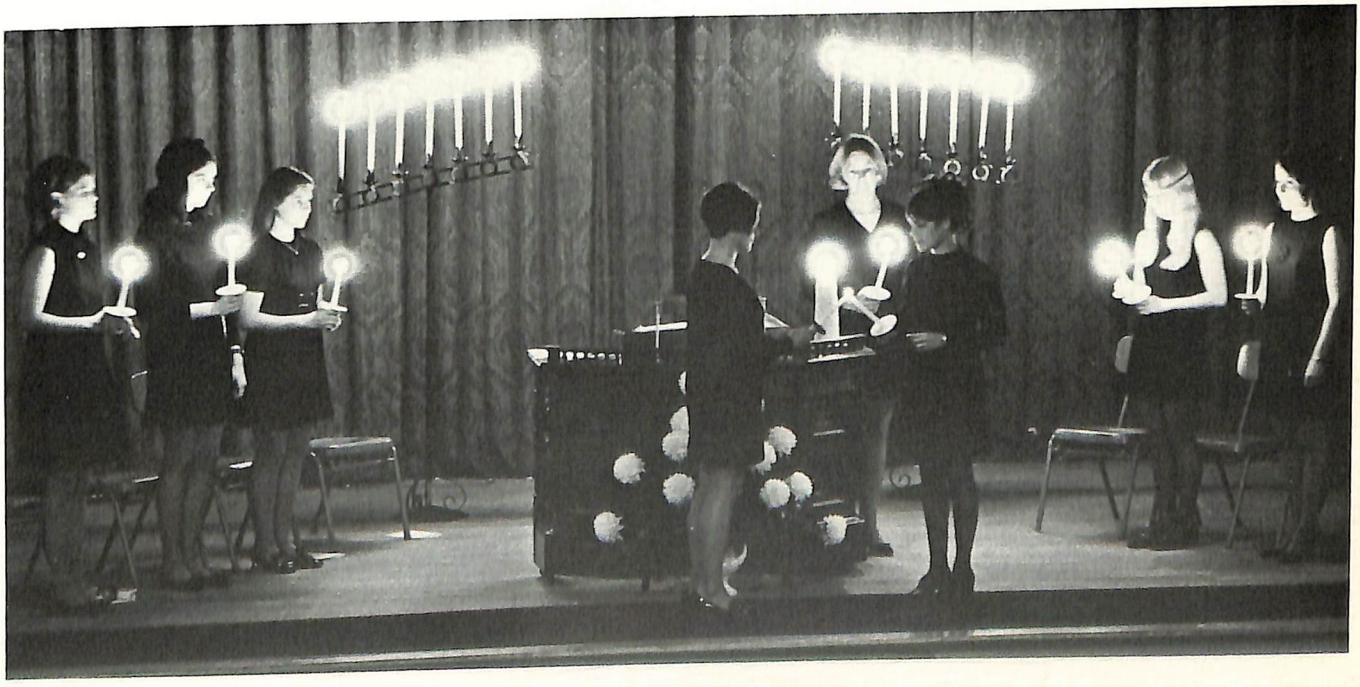
Chris Beaumont proves she's making good grades



A real splash was created in the Water Show

Recognition

The freshmen are recognized as a class by the seniors.



Sisters from the Catholic Children's Home tell Carolee Tanzer how many dolls they will need as gifts for the children

Doll Dinner

Sue Ludington really knows how to drape that greenery

Dorothy Poster and Cathy Owens place the centerpiece on head table. The dining room was decorated as "Christmas in Vienna," the Doll Dinner theme.

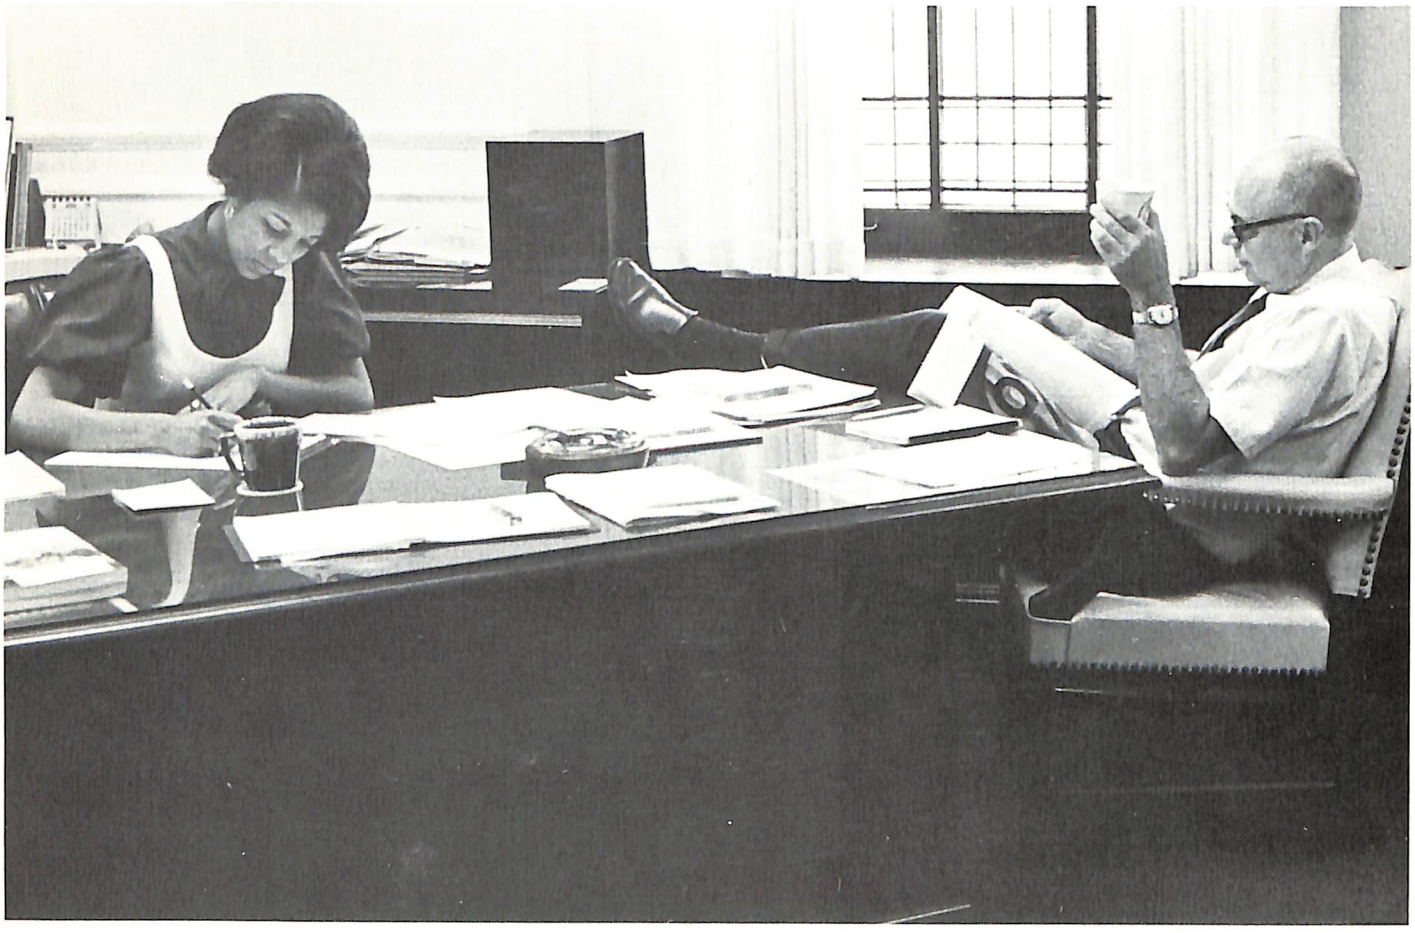
Entertainment was provided by dancing German dolls, Carol Fairchild, Gretchen Dinges, and Judy Herndon

Mrs. Bess Montroy was announced as "The Living Doll"

The 1969 Doll Dinner was dedicated to Miss Darinka Arandjelovic for the assistance she gave in planning and carrying out the theme. MSO members and Doll Dinner chairman, Kathy Tatro, Vickie Britt and Sue Hazen pin on her corsage.

Switch-It Day

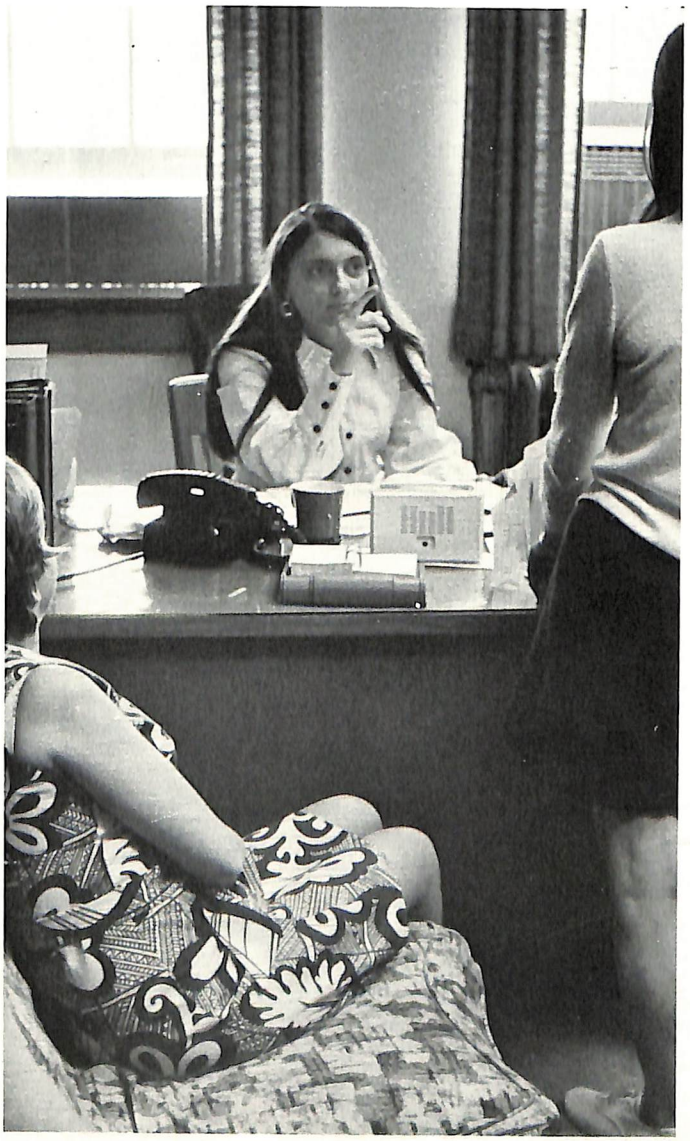


Janice Burr takes over as Monticello College President-for-a-Day as Dr. Myers takes it easy

Jenna Johnston, Director of Public Information, and Carol Shields, Director of Public Relations, prepare for a busy day in the PR office

Helen Sirotek, Director of Security and Transportation, gives Mr. Landre some instructions.

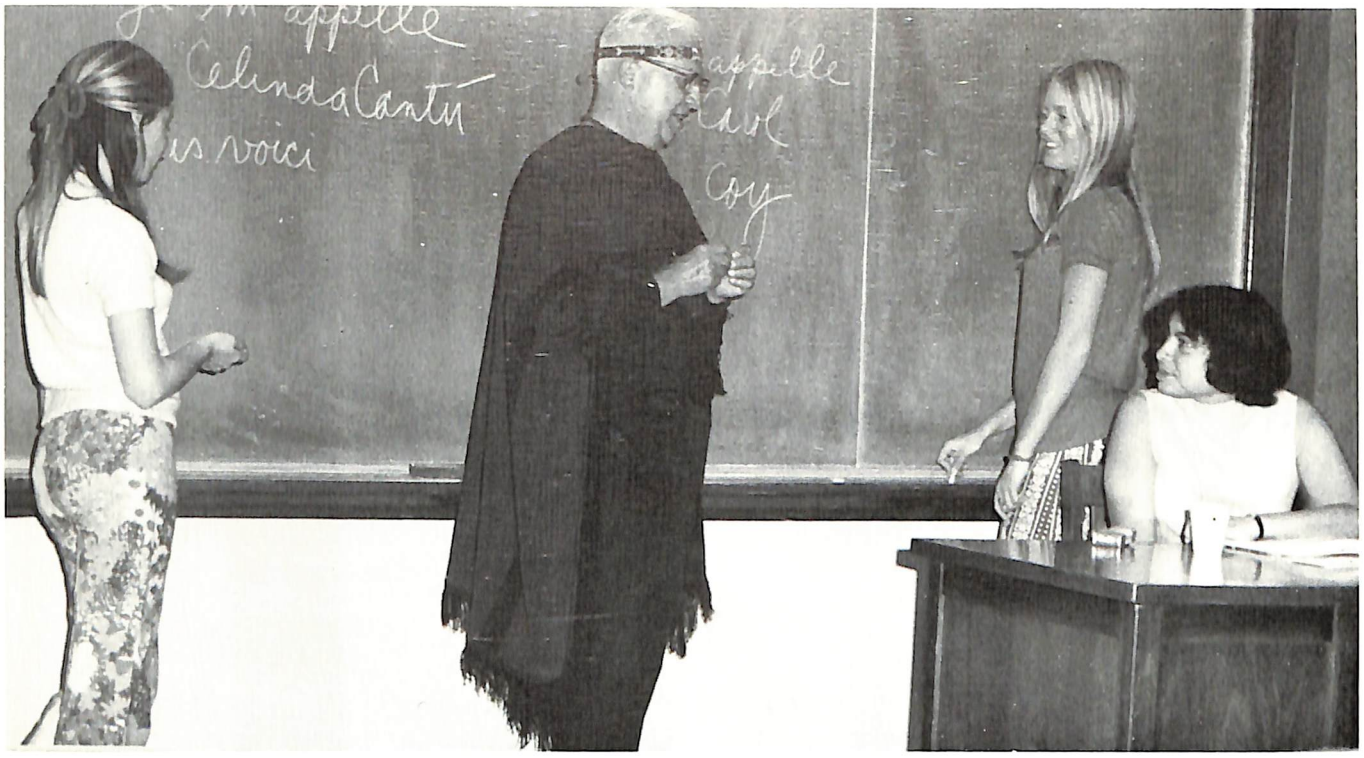
Debbie Snyder really believes in "playing the role" as she takes over Mrs. Jessup's drama class



Donna Tanenbaum really takes her duties as Dean of Women seriously. Of course, Dean Shewman is looking on.

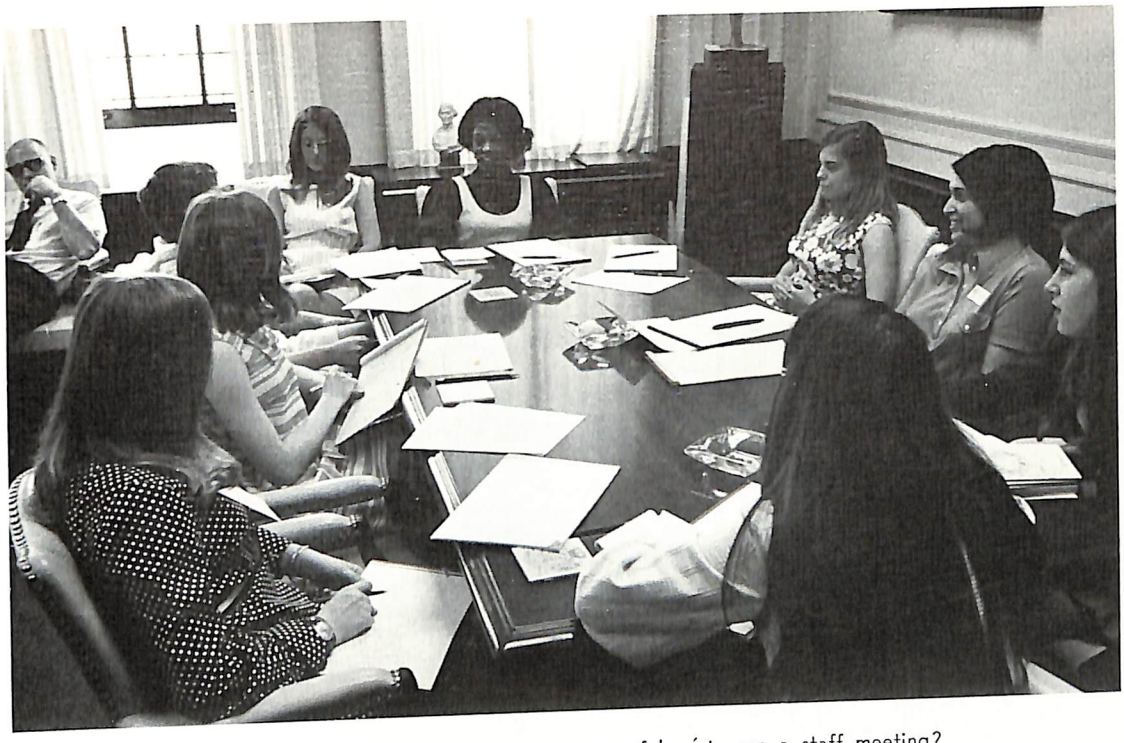
Under Dean Schweitzer's watchful eye, Cynthia Ciasulli, Vice President and Academic Dean, gives some instructions to her secretary, Nona McDougal.

The Development Office personnel parley. students left to right: Cindy Spurgeon, Assistant Dir. of Development; Dorothy Poster, New Heritage Co-ordinator; Patti Edelman, Director of Alumnae Affairs; Cathy Cole, Foundations Co-ordinator; in background left to right: Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Ryckman and Mr. Norvell



Mr. Woodbury in his "student costume" speaks in French with Carol Fairchild and Celinda Cantu who is instructing the French class.

A serious matter is under discussion at the weekly staff meeting.



Do you suppose Dr. Myers is taking note of how to run a staff meeting?

They do look interested.

Carol Shields orders some paper supplies for Office Services.

Liz Perry

Liz Perry Memorial — Senior Recognition Award

This award was made at Commencement with the following statement by Dr. Myers:

"Missing from this year's graduating class is a young woman whose life was snuffed out last spring by a brutal murder in New Jersey. Elizabeth Perry had just finished her freshman year a few days before the tragedy. Mr. and Mrs. Perry this past year met with Dean Shewman and asked that an award be made in memory of Liz—an award to a member of this graduating class.

A committee of students worked with Dean Shewman to determine the nature of the award and the criteria for so honoring a member of this class. Their feelings were that Liz was characterized by her hard work for others without any thought to glory or reward. Thus was born the SENIOR RECOGNITION AWARD—the LIZ PERRY MEMORIAL—a recognition to the senior student who has given her time and talents to the college community without great fanfare of recognition.

From the list of nominations, ten were chosen and a final selection was made by a student-faculty-administrative joint committee.

I'm pleased to present the medallion representing this Liz Perry Memorial—Senior Recognition Award to Kathy Atwood."
